Re: United States v. Anthony Randall
07 Cr 857 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I am writing at the suggestion of your courtroom deputy to re-schedule a pre-trial conference in the above-referenced case. Your Honor set a pre-trial conference for this afternoon at 2:15 pm. I recently learned that the U.S. Marshals Service was unable to transport the defendant from the Metropolitan Detention Center to the courthouse this morning due to the defendant's illness. I have spoken with Mark Gombiner, Esq, counsel for the defendant, and we are jointly requesting an adjournment of today's pre-trial conference due to the unavailability of the defendant. Your courtroom deputy suggested that we seek a date in approximately two weeks. In addition, pursuant to your previous referral of any plea to the Magistrate Judge on duty, if the parties reach a disposition before any adjourned conference date, I will inform the Court.

In addition, the Government moves to exclude time from today's date through the date of the next pre-trial conference under the Speedy Trial Act, Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161, so that the defendant and his counsel may review discovery and determine if any motions need to be made, and so that the parties can engage in plea discussions. Mr. Gombiner has consented to this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL J. GARCIA
United States Attorney
